Amerinet Education Partner Offers Training Series on Regulatory Issues for Ambulatory Surgery Centers

Inquisit[®], the strategic education partner of leading healthcare group purchasing organization, Amerinet, is offering a seven-part audio conference series focusing on OSHA and CMS regulatory issues for ambulatory surgery centers (ASCs).

The 60-75 minute sessions are scheduled for 1:15 p.m. ET, beginning May 4, and will cover topics including updates on OSHA and CMS regulations including surgical services, patient admissions infection control and adverse events.

All healthcare professionals working in ASC facilities can benefit from these educational resources.

The presentations allow facilities to include staff for one very low price for each connection. Time is allotted for Q & A and an opportunity to make comments and share experiences and best practices.

The series dates and titles include:

- May 4, 2010 – OSHA Update: Principles and Practices presented by Gayle R. Evans, RN, BSN, MBA, CNOR, CASC

CMS Freestanding ASC Regulatory Series presented by Sue Dill Calloway, RN, MSN, JD

- June 1, 2010 – Governing Board, Management and Compliance
- July 8, 2010 – Surgery and Anesthesia Services
- August 4, 2010 – Patient Admission, Discharge and Assessment
- September 10, 2010 – Infection Control
- September 30, 2010 – CMS, QAPI and Adverse Events
- November 18, 2010 – Environment of Care, Fire, Emergency Equipment Standard and Emergency Personnel

The education sessions highlight Amerinet's ongoing commitment to enhance product and service offerings in the ASC sector. More than 2,000 surgery centers partner with Amerinet for innovative ways to reduce their cost per procedure and improve quality of care. In addition to information and education, Amerinet's surgery center services include:

- Access to 95 percent of the purchases that facilities make – most at a significantly reduced rate
- Savings of up to 10 percent or more on pharmacy purchases through an Amerinet authorized wholesaler
- Revenue cycle management, which improves billing, coding, reimbursement and collections
